

President's Message

It is not how you give, but how much love we put into the giving.
(Mother Teresa).

Today is your day!! Make it worth the wait...worth the risks taken....worth the gifts of service you provide to your community and the world.

As the various holiday seasons are upon us, no matter what you may celebrate, my hope is that the season is a joyous one for you. As I celebrate Christmas, I look forward to our busy Santa season, providing gifts and smiles to thousands of children. In giving, it is so true that we receive so much more!!

So, in your travels, whether it be to the supermarket or around the world, hold the door for the person behind you, buy an extra sandwich and give it to someone who cannot afford it, or take an hour to visit your local elderly home, not to mention so many more things that are too countless to write here.

My season wish is that you have a peaceful and blessed month ahead.
I hope to see you on Thursday, December 19, at 8 PM EST at our next meeting.

In the words of Santa....ho-ho-ho....He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle, and away they all flew like the down of a thistle. But I heard him exclaim, as he drove out of sight, "Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good-night."

Yours in Kiwanis Service
Chuck

Jim's Gems

At this time of the year, it is the time to give thanks for good health and for doing the things that the Tigers do. The Tigers are becoming more and more important to the longevity of the organization we love, Kiwanis. It is becoming more and more challenging to get people to go out and open new Kiwanis clubs. Thankfully, the dedicated members of the Eye of the Tiger club are willing and very dedicated people who step up to provide this most important service.

Also, a big thank you to Joe Meyer for putting together the great presentation of the various song clips at our November meeting. Also, a big thank you to President Chuck for his leadership and direction of the club, which renewed our energy toward fulfilling our purpose of membership and club opening while having fun at the same time

Enjoy your holidays and come back energized to start with a fresh level of energy in 2025 to lead by example to make our organization and the world a better place.

Thank you for all you do, and Happy Holidays!
Sincerely,
Jim Rochford

Past President
Jim Rochford

Congratulations to Kelly Pena, president and charter member (2017) of the Kiwanis Literacy Club of Southern California. The club was awarded the Outstanding Club trophy for Kiwanis CNH Division 10. They have helped other clubs in the division, district, and Kiwanis International clubs with their literacy needs.

The Kiwanis Literacy Club of Southern California partners with Eye of the Tiger (EOT) to supply books to new Kiwanis clubs so they can hit the ground running with their first service projects—supplying books to children in the communities they serve.
